3) DESCRIPTION OF VARIETY/CULTIVAR. Describe your variety or cultivar in detail, or attach a description. Please indicate whether any part of the disclosed material is owned by a third party.

CONFIDENTIAL: This Plant Material Invention Disclosure may contain information proprietary to Washington State University and may not be disclosed to anyone not bound to the University or its assignee under the terms of a written confidentiality agreement.

4) PUBLICATION AND PUBLIC DISCLOSURE. Public disclosure or distribution of your variety or cultivar without the use of a material transfer agreement (MTA) or a confidentiality agreement (CDA) prior to the filing of a PVP application or a patent may affect intellectual property options. If there have been any cases of prior disclosure/transfer without such agreements having been in place, please indicate and explain below. Instances of public disclosure only apply to cultivars; unprotected transfers of material pertain to both varieties and cultivars.
	Please describe:
Prior Publications and Presentations (for cultivars only):
Date(s) published and /or presented:	List all printed and online publications of this invention (e.g., scientific papers, websites, theses, etc.) List all public disclosures given outside your laboratory (e.g., lecture, conferences, poster sessions, invited speaker, discussions with industry, etc.)
Upcoming Publications and Presentations (for cultivars only):
Date(s) of scheduled publications and/or presentations:	Details of intended publications and presentations (including discussions with industry).

CONFIDENTIAL: This Plant Material Invention Disclosure may contain information proprietary to Washington State University and may not be disclosed to anyone not bound to the University or its assignee under the terms of a written confidentiality agreement.

5) FINANCIAL SUPPORT. The federal government requires that inventions, whether patentable or not, be reported to the funding agency that provided financial support for the research that led to the creation and/or reduction to practice of the invention. If any part of the invention was developed with financial support from a federal, state, or local agency and/or with financial support from an industry sponsor, please provide the source of support and contract numbers. Assume all CAHNRS faculty are funded with Hatch or other federal formula funds. Contact WSU-OC for a federal formula fund award number to include below (WSU-OC telephone no.: 509-335-5526).

*Please note that the sum of contributions must total 100%.

6) NAMES AND SIGNATURES OF INVENTOR(S). Please list the names of all individuals who contributed to the crossing and selection of the variety or cultivar. Include contributors indicated on page 1 of this disclosure form for cultivars. By signing below, all university breeders/inventors agree to assign, and hereby assign, all right, title and interest to this intellectual property to Washington State University (WSU) and agree to execute all documents as requested, assigning to WSU their rights in any patent application or other intellectual property protection filed on this invention, and to cooperate with WSU in the protection of this intellectual property. By signing below, the breeders/inventors confirm that prior to the execution of this disclosure, they have not granted the right or license to make, use, or sell the disclosed intellectual property to anyone except to WSU, nor have they otherwise encumbered their rights, title, and interest in the disclosed intellectual property, nor will they execute any instrument in conflict with this agreement. To the extent there are any prior WSU Invention Disclosures submitted for the variety or cultivar, this Invention Disclosure supersedes and replaces all prior executed WSU Invention Disclosure(s).
